ZOE WILD.
Wild by name. Wild by nature.

Zoe Wild aka Zoe L'Amore is a chameleon of the Arts! She began performing Circus as a Trapeze Artist in the late 90's acquiring a passion for danger that grew into a repertoire of bizarre acts. Zoe has toured with famous physical theatre companies, performed at the best festivals & events and starred in extreme Freak Shows around the world. Her performances combine circus skill with sideshow thrills, playing with fire, grinders, swords, electricity, aerials and escape and she holds 3 x Guinness World Records for such displays.

Zoe often performs alongside her partner, celebrity sideshow performer, 'The Space Cowboy'. With him as the Host and her as the Designer/ Creative Director they have produced a multitude of high impact Circus Stunt Shows and Sideshow Attractions for events in Oz, the UK, Europe, USA, Indonesia and more. Recently performing their show 'Deja Voodoo', in the prestigious 'Circus Bigtop' at Glastonbury Festival, UK.

Zoe has designed and created a multitude of elaborate acts, costumes, props, sets throughout this whirlwind of stunts and sequins. Her focus on design throughout led her to develop a passion for Interior Design.

While the world was paused Zoe completed her Associate Degree in Interior Design at Billy Blue College of Design. Since then she has launched into Festival Design, Styling and Installation. Her latest projects have been 'The National Circus Festival' for Spaghetti Circus, 'Sidestep Children's Festival with 'Roundabout Theatre', Assistant Designer for 'Amy Gale Studio's'. She is currently working on an Immersive Performance Art Garden, 'Juju Jungle' that will be revealed at 'Woodford Festival' in December.
